

Primax Electronics Ltd.

Sustainable Development Best Practice Principles

Chapter I General Principles

- Article 1 To fulfill Primax Electronics Ltd. (“the Company”) corporate social responsibility initiatives for purposes of sustainable development, establish the Company’s Sustainable Development Best Practice Principles (“the Principles”) to manage the Company’s economic, environmental and social risks and impact.
- Article 2 The Principles apply to the companies, including the entire operations of each such company and its business group.
The Company to actively fulfill sustainable development in the course of their business operations so as to follow international development trends and to contribute to the economic development of the country, to improve the quality of life of employees, the community and society by acting as responsible corporate citizens, and to enhance competitive edges built on sustainable development.
- Article 3 In promoting sustainable development initiatives, the Company shall, in its corporate management guidelines and business operations, give due consideration to the rights and interests of stakeholders and, while pursuing sustainable operations and profits, also give due consideration to the environment, society and corporate governance.
The Company shall, in accordance with the materiality principle, conduct risk assessments of environmental, social and corporate governance issues pertaining to company operations and establish the relevant risk management policy or strategy.
- Article 4 To implement sustainable development initiatives, the Company are advised to follow the principles below:
1. Exercise corporate governance.
 2. Foster a sustainable environment.
 3. Preserve public welfare.
 4. Enhance disclosure of corporate sustainable development information.
- Article 5 The Company shall take into consideration the correlation between the development of domestic and international sustainable development issues and corporate core business operations, and the effect of the operation of individual companies and of their respective business groups as a whole on stakeholders, in establishing their policies, systems or relevant management guidelines, and concrete promotion plans for sustainable development programs, which shall be approved by the board of directors and then reported to the shareholders meeting.
When a shareholder proposes a motion involving sustainable development, the company's board of directors is advised to review and consider including it in the shareholders meeting agenda.

Chapter 2 Exercising Corporate Governance

- Article 6 The Company is advised to follow the Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/TPEX Listed Companies, the Ethical Corporate Management Best Practice Principles for TWSE/TPEX Listed Companies, and the Code of Ethical Conduct for TWSE/TPEX Listed Companies to establish effective corporate governance frameworks and relevant ethical standards so as to enhance corporate governance.
- Article 7 For the purpose of managing sustainable development initiatives, the Company create a governance structure for promotion of sustainable development, and establish an exclusively (or concurrently) dedicated unit to be in charge of proposing and enforcing the sustainable development policies, systems, or relevant management guidelines, and concrete promotional plans and to report on the same to the board of directors on a periodic basis.
- Article 8 The board of directors shall exercise the due care of good administrators to urge the company to perform its sustainable development initiatives, examine the results of the implementation there of from time to time and continually make adjustments so as to ensure the thorough implementation of its sustainable development policies.
- The board of directors is advised to give full consideration to the interests of stakeholders, including the following matters, in the company's furtherance of its sustainable development objectives:
1. Identifying the company's sustainable development mission or vision, and declaring its sustainable development policy, systems or relevant management guidelines;
 2. Enhancing the timeliness and accuracy of the disclosure of sustainable development information.
 3. The board of directors shall appoint executive-level positions with responsibility for economic, environmental, and social issues resulting from the business operations of the company, and to report the status of the handling to the board of directors. The handling procedures and the responsible person for each relevant issue shall be concrete and clear.
- Article 9 The Companies are advised to, on a regular basis, organize education and training on the promotion of sustainable development initiatives, including promotion of the matters prescribed in paragraph 2 of the preceding article.
- Article 10 The Company adopt reasonable remuneration policies, to ensure that remuneration arrangements support the strategic aims of the organization, and align with the interests of stakeholders, the employee performance evaluation system be combined with sustainable development policies, and that a clear and effective incentive and discipline system be established.

- Article 11 The Company based on respect for the rights and interests of stakeholders, identify stakeholders of the company, and establish a designated section for stakeholders on the company website; understand the reasonable expectations and demands of stakeholders through proper communication with them, and adequately respond to the important sustainable development issues which they are concerned about.

Chapter 3 Fostering a Sustainable Environment

- Article 12 The company follow Responsible Business Alliance standards, relevant environmental laws, regulations and international standards to properly protect the environment and shall endeavor to promote a sustainable environment when engaging in business operations and internal management.

- Article 13 The company endeavor to utilize energy more efficiently and use renewable materials which have a low impact on the environment to improve sustainability of natural resources.

- Article 14 The company establish proper environment management systems based on the characteristics of their industries. Such systems shall include the following tasks:
1. Collecting sufficient and up-to-date information to evaluate the impact of the company's business operations on the natural environment.
 2. Establishing measurable goals for environmental sustainability, and examining whether the development of such goals should be maintained and whether it is still relevant on a regular basis.
 3. Adopting enforcement measures such as concrete plans or action plans, and examining the results of their operation on a regular basis.

- Article 15 The company establish a dedicated unit or assign dedicated personnel for drafting, promoting, and maintaining relevant environment management systems and concrete action plans, and should hold environment education courses for their managerial officers and other employees on a periodic basis.

- Article 16 The company take into account the effect of business operations on ecological efficiency, promote and advocate the concept of sustainable consumption, and conduct research and development, procurement, production, operations, and services in accordance with the following principles to reduce the impact on the natural environment and human beings from their business operations:
1. Reduce resource and energy consumption of their products and services.
 2. Reduce emission of pollutants, toxins and waste, and dispose of waste properly.
 3. Improve recyclability and reusability of raw materials or products.

4.Maximize the sustainability of renewable resources.

5.Enhance the durability of products.

6.Improve efficiency of products and services.

Article 17 To improve water use efficiency, the company properly and sustainably use water resources. Construct and improve environmental protection treatment facilities to avoid polluting water, air and land, and use their best efforts to reduce adverse impact on human health and the environment by adopting the best practical pollution prevention and control measures.

Article 18 The company assess the current and future potential risks and opportunities that climate change may present to enterprises and to adopt related measures, adopt standards or guidelines generally used in Taiwan and abroad to enforce corporate greenhouse gas inventory and to make disclosures thereof, the scope of which shall include the following:

1.Direct greenhouse gas emissions: emissions from operations that are owned or controlled by the company.

2.Indirect greenhouse gas emissions: emissions resulting from the utilization of energy such as imported electricity, heating, or steam.

3.Other indirect emissions: emissions resulting from corporate activities that are not indirect emissions from energy, but are from other sources of emissions owned or controlled by the company.

The company compile statistics on greenhouse gas emissions, volume of water consumption and total weight of waste and to establish policies for energy conservation, carbon and greenhouse gas reduction, reduction of water consumption or management of other wastes. The companies' carbon reduction strategies should include obtaining carbon credits and be promoted accordingly to minimize the impact of their business operations on climate change.

Chapter 4 Preserving Public Welfare

Article 19 The company comply with relevant laws and regulations, and the International Bill of Human Rights, with respect to rights such as gender equality, the right to work, and prohibition of discrimination, to fulfill its responsibility to protect human rights, shall adopt relevant management policies and processes, including:

1.Presenting a corporate policy or statement on human rights.

2.Evaluating the impact of the company's business operations and internal management on human rights, and adopting corresponding handling processes.

3.Reviewing on a regular basis the effectiveness of the corporate policy or statement on human rights.

4.In the event of any infringement of human rights, the company shall disclose the processes for handling of the matter with respect to the stakeholders involved.

The company comply with the internationally recognized human rights of labor, including the freedom of association, the right of collective bargaining, caring for vulnerable groups, prohibiting the use of child labor, eliminating all forms of forced labor, eliminating recruitment and employment discrimination, and shall ensure that their human resource policies do not contain differential treatments based on gender, race, socioeconomic status, age, or marital and family status, so as to achieve equality and fairness in employment, hiring conditions, remuneration, benefits, training, evaluation, and promotion opportunities.

The company provide an effective and appropriate grievance mechanism with respect to matters adversely impacting the rights and interests of the labor force, in order to ensure equality and transparency of the grievance process. Channels through which a grievance may be raised shall be clear, convenient, and unobstructed. Respond to any employee's grievance in an appropriate manner.

- Article 20 The company provide information for their employees so that the employees have knowledge of the labor laws and the rights they enjoy in the countries where the companies have business operations.
- Article 21 The company provide safe and healthful work environments for their employees, including necessary health and first-aid facilities and shall endeavor to curb dangers to employees' safety and health and to prevent occupational accidents, and organize training on safety and health for their employees on a regular basis.
- Article 22 The company create an environment conducive to the development of their employees' careers and establish effective training programs to foster career skills. And appropriately reflect the business performance or achievements in the employee remuneration, to ensure the recruitment, retention, and motivation of human resources, and achieve the objective of sustainable operations.
- Article 23 The company establish a platform to facilitate regular two-way communication between the management and the employees for the employees to obtain relevant information on and express their opinions on the company's operations, management and decisions. The company respect the employee representatives' rights to bargain for the working conditions, and shall provide the employees with necessary information and hardware equipment, in order to improve the negotiation and cooperation among employers, employees and employee representatives, by reasonable means, inform employees of operation changes that might have material impacts.
- Article 24 The company ensure the quality of their products and services by following the laws and regulations of the government and relevant standards of their industries. The company follow relevant laws, regulations and international guidelines in regard to marketing and labeling of, their products and services and shall not deceive.

Article 25 The company evaluate and manage all types of risks that could cause interruptions in operations, so as to reduce the impact on consumers and society.

The company provide a clear and effective procedure for accepting consumer complaints to fairly and timely handle consumer complaints, shall comply with laws and regulations related to the Personal Information Protection Act for respecting consumers' rights of privacy and shall protect personal data provided by consumers.

Article 26 The company assess the impact their procurement has on society as well as the environment of the community that they are procuring from, and shall cooperate with their suppliers to jointly implement the corporate social responsibility initiative. The company establish supplier management policies and request suppliers to comply with rules governing issues such as environmental protection, occupational safety and health or labor rights. Prior to engaging in commercial dealings, The company assess whether there is any record of a supplier's impact on the environment and society, and avoid conducting transactions with those against corporate social responsibility policy. When the company The company enter into a contract with any of their major suppliers, the content should include terms stipulating mutual compliance with corporate social responsibility policy, and that the contract may be terminated or rescinded any time if the supplier has violated such policy and has caused significant negative impact on the environment and society of the community of the supply source.

Article 27 The company evaluate the impact of their business operations on the community, and adequately employ personnel from the location of the business operations, to enhance community acceptance. The company through commercial activities, endowments, volunteering service or other charitable professional services, participate in events held by citizen organizations, charities and local government agencies relating to community development and community education to promote community development.

Chapter 5 Enhancing Disclosure of Sustainable Development Information

Article 28 The company disclose information according to relevant laws, regulations and the Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/TPEX listed Companies and shall fully disclose relevant and reliable information relating to their sustainable development initiatives to improve information transparency.

Relevant information relating to sustainable development which the company disclose includes:

1. The policy, systems or relevant management guidelines, and concrete promotion plans for sustainable development initiatives, as resolved by the board of directors.

2. The risks and the impact on the corporate operations and financial condition arising from exercising corporate governance, fostering a sustainable environment and preserving social public welfare.
3. Goals and measures for promoting the sustainable development initiatives established by the companies, and performance in implementation.
4. Major stakeholders and their concerns.
5. Disclosure of information on major suppliers' management and performance with respect to major environmental and social issues.
6. Other information relating to sustainable development initiatives.

Article 29 The company adopt internationally widely recognized standards or guidelines when producing sustainability reports, to disclose the status of their implementation of the sustainable development policy. It also is advisable to obtain a third-party assurance or verification for reports to enhance the reliability of the information in the reports. The reports are advised to include:

1. The policy, system, or relevant management guidelines and concrete promotion plans for implementing sustainable development initiatives.
2. Major stakeholders and their concerns.
3. Results and a review of the exercising of corporate governance, fostering of a sustainable environment, preservation of public welfare and promotion of economic development.
4. Future improvements and goals.

Chapter 6 Supplementary Provisions

Article 30 The company at all times monitor the development of domestic and foreign sustainable development standards and the change of business environment so as to examine and improve their established sustainable development framework and to obtain better results from the promotion of the sustainable development policy.

Article 31 This Procedures, shall take effect after adoption by a resolution of the board of directors. Subsequent amendments thereto shall be effected in the same manner.

This Procedures adoption by a resolution on March 24, 2016.

Amendment for 1st instance: March 10, 2020.

Amendment for 2nd instance: November 4, 2021.

Amendment for 3rd instance: January 21, 2022.

Amendment for 4th instance: May 8, 2024.